

USE A GUNBOAT IF NECESSARY

The Americans Are Not to be Shot In Cuba Tomorrow.

SECRETARY OLNEY CABLES TO CONSUL WILLIAMS.

Authorizes Him to Use Naval Force to Prevent the Execution of the Subjects of Uncle Sam Who Are Charged With Flibustering—Men Will Be Shot at Once, if Consul Doesn't Interfere in Their Behalf

Washington, May 9.—Secretary Olney will send a dispatch to Ramon O. Williams, consul general at Havana, instructing him to stop the execution of the Americans found guilty of treason, and to use an American gunboat if necessary.

Havana, May 9.—The American filbustlers who were sentenced to death, will be shot inside of twenty-four hours if not stopped by the United States consul.

Havana, May 9.—The trial by court-martial of the men captured on board the American schooner Competitor of Key West, Fla., by the Spanish gun-boat Mensajera, on April 25, began in the Court of Justice in the navy yard here shortly before 8 o'clock this morning, as a tropical rain shower was falling.

Before beginning their work the members of the court assembled in the chapel of the navy yard and reverently witnessed the celebration of mass, going thence directly to the Court of Justice, where many other officers had assembled. The prisoners then entered —Alfredo Laborde, the leader; Dr. Elias Bedia, John Milton, said to be from Kansas; William Gildea, said to be a British subject, and Teodoro Mata.

After the statement by the prosecution, setting forth the details of the capture, the prisoners were in turn called up to testify. Laborde testified that he had been compelled by the passengers of the competitor to take the arms and ammunition aboard against his will. He said he did not fire against the Spanish gunboat. Dr.
Bedia said he had gone on board the Competitor to bid some friends good-by, and they had prevented him from going ashore. Mata, Gildea and Milton told much the same story.

The prosecution classed all the prisoners as traitors and as assisting in the insurrection. The schooner was classed as a pirate worth about $4,000 and having on board an insurgent flag valued at 1 cent. As to Laborde, the prosecution pointed out that he was the man who had signed the proclamations found on board the schooner when she was captured.

The prosecutor afterward read a letter addressed by United States Consul General Ramon O. Williams to Admiral Navarro, in which Mr. Williams stated he had heard of the capture of the Competitor, an American pilot boat, and that it was supposed some of the persons captured on board of her were American citizens. Therefore the consul general requested information as to the antecedents of the prisoners in order that he might communicate on the subject with the government at Washington.

Mr. Williams protested against the prisoners being tried by summary court-martial, holding that they should be tried before an ordinary court, in accordance with treaty obligations.

In conformity with the information gathered and in accordance with the laws, Admiral Navarro at 11 o'clock last night formally delivered the case for the prisoners into the hands of Lieut. Pardo, appointed attorney for the defense.

The prosecution thereupon read the formal act of accusation declaring the prisoners to be filibusters captured in a state of rebellion against the Spanish government and classing the Competitor as being a Key West lifeboat found landing arms and ammunition on the coast of Cuba.

Therefore, in the name of the king of Spain the prosecutor asked that the death sentence be imposed on all the prisoners.

Lieut. Pardo, for the defense, said that he did not consider the prisoners should be treated as being all equally guilty. For instance, he said, it seemed clear that Laborde and Bedia were more guilty than Milton and Gildea, and that Milton was only guilty of excessive zeal in trying to obtain information.

Admiral Navarro approved of the death sentence being imposed.

The proceedings were terminated shortly before 12 o'clock.

Washington, May 11.—The proceedings of the Spanish court-martial in the case of the men captured on the schooner Competitor are being closely followed here, and there is ground for the fear that unless the matter is handled with great discretion it may result in straining the present friendly and amicable relations between the United States and Spain. Strong representations have been made to the state department on the subject, and the department certainly will not fail to intervene in the case if it shall appear that at least one of the Americans under trial is not treated with all of the privileges accorded by the rules of civilized warfare.

ITALIANS WILL NOT EVACUATE.
Intend to Hold Kassala So Long as England Menaces.

Rome, May 9.—In the course of a debate on the African credit the minister for foreign affairs, the Duke of Sermonita, repudiated the idea that the Italian government had the intention of abandoning Massowah, and intimated that the Italians would hold Kassala so long as the interests of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition to Dongola demanded it.

Execution Riots On at Shiraz.
London, May 9.—The Times has a dispatch from Teheran, Persia, which says that further riots attendant upon the executions have occurred at Shiraz and the bazaars were closed. Bread is reported to be very scarce still there.

Pano Elected President of Bolivia.
Buenos Ayres, May 9.—Col. Pano has been elected president of Bolivia in succession to Senor Mariano Baptista, whose term of four years expires on Aug. 6 of the present year.

HAS FAITH IN CHICAGO.
Harry Says It Will Raise Convention Fund.

Chicago, May 9.—Chairman W. F.
Harry and four other members of the democratic national convention are in Chicago to make arrangements for the great convention which will be held in the Coliseum just two months hence.
The principal matter which engaged their attention is whether the local committee will be able to transfer to them the balance of the $40,000 guaranteed for the expense of the convention.
A portion of this amount has already been turned over to the national committee. The collection of the balance has been rather slow, but Chairman Harry expresses implicit confidence in the disposition and ability of the Chicago democracy to fulfill its part of the contract in good time. L. Z. Leiter, Joseph Donnersberger, Martin J. Russell, A. S. Gage, A. A. Goodrich, Ben T.
Cable and B. J. Rosenthal, who became the guarantors of the fund, will meet the national committee and complete the financial arrangements. Chairman Harry called his colleagues together at the Wellington Hotel at 12 o'clock.
The committee members present were: Secretary S. P. Sheerin, of Indiana; Ben T. Cable, of Illinois; Colonel John G.
Prather, of Missouri; and Thomas H.
Sherley, of Kentucky. Colonel Martin, the sergeant-at-arms of the convention, and F. E. Canda, of New York, the expert architect, were also present. Everybody was in good spirits, for to begin with Chairman Harry announced that there would be no trouble about securing the necessary funds, and both Colonel Martin and Mr. Canda agreed that the Coliseum was the finest convention hall in the United States.

An Ohio Mayor in a Dilemma.
Massillon, Ohio, May 9.—Mayor Schott is struggling to determine whether or not a firecracker is a musical instrument. This problem arises from the giving of an open-air concert in the park. The musicians concluded their evening's performance with the national hymn, "America," and in order to give the selection according to the score, detailed two of their number to shoot off firecrackers. There is a city ordinance authorizing band concerts to be given in the park, and also one forbidding the explosion of firecrackers. The firecrackers exploded and a bold policeman arrested the musicians. They have pleaded not guilty and will have a jury trial next week.

THE TRADE REVIEW BY DUN & COMPANY

EXPORTS OF GOLD PRODUCE NO PERTURBATION.

Certain Proof of the Soundness of Financial Conditions and the Increasing Confidence Prevailing of Good Times to Come—The Failures of the Week.

New York, May 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, which issues today, will say:

That exports of $5,850,000 gold this week have produced no monetary disturbance is at once proof of the soundness of financial conditions and of the prevailing confidence in better things to come.

Much of the hesitation at present is due to temporarily reduced demand in some industries, and in iron and steel the power of the new combinations is being tested generally by refusal of orders, so that production exceeds consumption, but consumption exceeds new buying. The general irregularity of prices and slackness of demand for finished products do not prevent the marking up of prices by combinations, but are largely due to doubt whether such prices as are fixed can be maintained.
Pig iron is weaker at the east and also at Pittsburgh, and most finished products are weaker, with remarkably narrow demand. Minor metals are inactive, with copper weak, tin steady, and lead slightly lower, and American tin-plates 30 cents below foreign.

For textile manufactures the situation is trying. Cotton mills have a fairly active demand, though not equal to their normal output, and for many months have been accumulating goods, hoping for better things, so that some are now stopping, although the demand for some grades, with higher prices for cotton, has helped to a small advance in prices. Print cloths are an eighth higher, but some other grades have declined, so that the average of all quotations is slightly lower. Woolen manufacturers find prices of wool sagging both here and abroad, the decline at London having reached about 5 per cent, while the average of quotations by Coates Bros., Philadelphia, was nearly 1 per cent lower May 1 and prices have been reduced further by concessions to clear off stocks.

At the west, traders are buying much above the parity of seaboard prices, and many growers are refusing to sell, believing that the upward spurt of last year will be repeated. Sales for the week have been less than half a week's full consumption, and for five weeks 15,146,700 pounds, against 29,409,600 last year.

Men's woollens show no improvement, but there is more active business in flannels and the demand for fancy dress goods is encouraging, though for plain goods it is but moderate.

Traders in wheat have lifted prices a little, and yet nobody questions the correctness of western reports indicating more than ordinary yield of winter wheat and unusual progress in the planting of spring. With the narrow stock usual at this season, a speculation for advance always has many opportunities, but western receipts are still 46 per cent larger than last year, while Atlantic exports, flour included, are for the week 943,667 bushels, against 1-615,051 a year ago. After a fall to 68½ cents, the price rose about 2 cents. Corn is also a shade lower, but without definite reason. Cotton speculation has lifted the spot price to 8.31 cents, and profits have been realized from the men who have sold cotton they did not own, but it is still the fact that the outlook for next fall's crop is unusually favorable, while stocks here and abroad exceed all possible demands until September 1.

Failures for the week have been 233 in the United States, against 227 last year, and 24 in Canada, against 34 last year.

Chicago's Population 1,760,000.
Chicago, May 9.—Chicago's population is approximately 1,760,000, and has increased steadily since 1894 by between 50,000 and 60,000 each year. So conservative an authority as Reuben H.
Donnelly, manager of the Chicago Directory company and compiler of the annual volume issued by that company, is the authority for this statement. Mr. Donnelly is regarded by the business community of Chicago as having the most intimate knowledge of the city's population possessed by any one man.

Hoyt Makes His Maiden Ocean Trip.
New York, May 9.—Charles Hoyt, who will start on his first trip across the ocean on the Lucania to-day, was given a farewell supper at Delmonico's last night by a party of his friends. It began at midnight. Mrs. Hoyt (Caroline Miskel) accompanies her husband to Europe. They intend to remain abroad only about a month, and will spend most of their time in London and Paris.

Suicide of a Chicago Man.
Cleveland, Ohio, May 9.—The body of A. C. Hogen, a former resident of Chicago, who has lived here with his son, Frank G. Hogen, for seven months, was found in Lakeview cemetery Friday. A bullet hole in the head, and his revolver lying by his side told the story of a suicide.

CLERKS AT CAPITAL ARE NOT CHEAP MEN

CONGRESSMEN VOTE TO PAY THEM $100 A MONTH.

Sharp Debate in the House Does Not Prevent Favorable Action—Senator White Exposes a Scheme in the Interest of the Southern Pacific—Capital News.

Washington, May 9.—The members of the house Friday voted themselves $100 a month for clerks' hire during the recesses of congress. Under a resolution passed by the Fifty-second congress, the members of subsequent congresses received $100 a month for clerk hire during the sessions. The proposition to extend this allowance to members during the recesses of congress came up in the form of a resolution adversely reported from the committee on accounts. It occasioned some very sharp debate. It had the support of Mr. Cannon, the chairman of the appropriations committee, but was opposed by Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority. Mr. Aldrich (rep., Ill.) said it would involve an additional expenditure of $216,000 per annum. The resolution was advocated by Mr. Cannon, Mr. Morse (rep., Mass.), Mr. Hepburn (rep., Iowa), Mr. Boutelle (rep., Me.), and Mr. Henderson (rep., Iowa), and opposed by Mr. Dockery (dem., Mo.), Pitney (rep., N. J.), Mr. Tracy (rep., Mo.), Mr. Wheeler (dem., Ala.), Mr. Skinner (rep., N. C.), and Mr. Tolbert (dem., S. S.).

The resolution was amended so as to except members chairmen of committees having annual clerks, and as amended was passed—130 to 108. An analysis of the vote shows that 114 republicans, 15 democrats and 1 silverite voted for it, and 53 republicans, 58 democrats and 1 populist voted against it.
On motion of Mr. Stahl (rep., Pa.) a resolution was passed requesting the president to inform the house what, if anything, had been done to carry out the provision in last year's sundry civil bill directing him to negotiate with the government of Great Britain for the abrogation or modification of the existing regulations of that government which require the slaughter of cattle imported from the United States at the port of entry.

A bill was passed to appropriate $5,000 for the deportation of the Canadian refugee Cree Indians from the state of Montana. There are about 500 of these Indians. They have been in Montana since the close of the Riel rebellion.

The pension bills favorably acted upon at the last Friday night session were taken up and passed.

At 4:30 o'clock the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to the consideration of private pension bills.

Twenty-two private pension bills were favorably acted upon at the night session of the house. Among them were bills to pension the widow of the late Maj.-Gen. Thomas Ewing at the rate of $75 per month, the widow of the late Maj. Theodore W. Greig at the rate of $50 per month and the widow of the late Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Carr at the rate of $75 per month. An attempt was made to cut down the rate of pension to Mrs. Ewing, but it was defeated. Mr. Pickler, chairman of the committee on pensions, stole a march on the opponents of pension legislation just before 10:30, the hour fixed for adjournment, by having the seventy-two bills favorably acted on in committee of the whole last Wednesday formally reported to the house.
Those bills were left suspended last Wednesday. Mr. Erdman (dem., Pa.) protested against the action and the question will probably come up on Monday.

SAID TO BE RAILROAD INFLUENCE.
Effort to Secure Millions for a Deep-Water Harbor on the Pacific.

Washington, May 9.—The river and harbor bill was completed in the senate Friday, with the exception of the item for a deep-sea harbor on the Pacific coast. This has aroused keen opposition, the two California senators opposing the proposed contract appropriation of $3,098,000 for a harbor at Santa Monica bay, on the ground that it is a project fostered by the Southern Pacific railroad as against public sentiment and the recommendation of two boards of army engineers.

Mr. White (Cal.) commented on the extraordinary condition by which the commerce committee of the senate was forcing an appropriation on the state against the wishes of its senators, representatives and people.

It is indicated that some "extraordinary influence" had been brought to bear. The senator commented on the "persistency of the Southern Pacific railway," and declared that this accounted for the extraordinary action.

Mr. White spoke of the surprise with which he learned that the paragraph for the Santa Monica appropriation had actually been printed for incorporation in the river and harbor bill, although the understanding had been reached that there should be no appropriation beyond that for the inner harbor at San Pedro.

"So that my state stands on higher grounds than other states occupy," said Mr. White. "Some states are forced to solicit appropriations, but in my case they came unsolicited and unwanted."

The senator commented severely on a communication from "the third house," written by Civil Engineer Corbell, "an employee of the Southern Pacific railroad."

The senator repudiated the claim by Corbell that he made an "official investigation" at the request of senators and members. It was Mr. Huntington whom he served. And yet Mr. White went on the committee, had set aside the recommendations of the army boards and had accepted the recommendations of paid employees.

Mr. Gray (dem., Del.) asked if there was not some official recommendation in favor of the Santa Monica harbor.

"None on earth," answered Mr.
White, "and further, this appropriation of $3,098,000 is proposed without an estimate or recommendation."

Mr. George (dem., Miss.) added further questions.

"Do I understand," he asked, "that two boards of army engineers, sworn to the performance of their duty, have reported against the appropriation which the committee recommends to the senate?"

"You do."

"And do I understand that the two California senators and the representative from the district oppose the appropriation which the committee recommends?"

"Yes."

"Is it a fact that no evidence exists in favor of the project except that of the two men in the employ of the Southern Pacific railroad?"

Mr. White answered that others had given their opinions and views, but there was no other professional engineering report.

Congressman Cooke Is Better.
Washington, May 9.—Congressman E. D. Cooke, who was taken seriously ill on his return from Chicago Thursday evening, is better, and expects to be able to attend the sessions of congress next week. He has charge of the Rinker-Downing contest from the Sixteenth Illinois district, and will call it up in the house at the first opportunity.

CLOSED WITH A CRAZY MAN.
Perilous Situation of a Southern Railway President.

Little Rock, Ark., May 9.—While Colonel S. W. Fordyce, president of the Cotton Belt road, was seated in his private car at Pine Bluff, he was approached by a strange looking man, who demanded $1,000. The fellow held a package in his hand, and informed the colonel that if he did not produce the money inside of five minutes his friends and also the company would regret it. He said he had been working on one of the branches of the Cotton Belt, and that the company owed him $1,000, and that he would not leave the car until he got it. He would accept no check, and nothing would satisfy him but the cash. Colonel Fordyce engaged the man in conversation, leading him to believe that his claim would be paid, while one of the members of the party slipped out of the rear door of the car and summoned a policeman.
Chief Stewart arrested the man and locked him up. The package in his possession proved to be a small box containing a number of cartridges, some of the shells of which had been exploded. He refused to give his name or tell where he came from.

LOST BY AN EARTHQUAKE.
Followed by Floods, Puerto Viejo, in Ecuador, Is Destroyed.

Panama, Colombia, May 9.—Puerto Viejo, the capital of the province of Manabi, with a population of 10,000, the correspondent in Guayaquil telegraphs, was destroyed by two earthquake shocks last night. The shocks were succeeded by floods inundating the city. Many lives are supposed to have been lost.

Ballington Wins the Case.

New York, May 9.—There was a long discussion Friday before Judge Pryor, of the Supreme court, relative to the right of Ballington Booth, commander of the American Volunteers, to oust the Salvation army from the headquarters at 234 Washington street, Newark, N. J. The case came up on a motion by William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, and of Booth-Tucker, commander of the army of the United States, restraining Ballington Booth from taking any steps to interfere with the Salvation army in its possession of the headquarters. Judge Pryor denied the motion and dissolved the injunction, so that Ballington Booth is no longer restrained from storming the old headquarters in Newark and taking possession of it for the Volunteers.

Messenger Wins $11,400 Damages.

Hannibal, Mo., May 9.—Judgment was rendered in the common pleas court here Friday for $11,400 in favor of R. W. Cobb vs. St. Louis and Hannibal railway. Cobb was a pacific Express messenger and was injured in a wreck at Whitesides. The suit was for $25,000.

Not Up to the Standard.

est strawberry county in Illinois, and the crop this year is a failure. The growers say there will not be one-fourth of the usual yield.

Rich Strike of Sylvanite Ore.
Deadwood, S. D., May 9.—A fabulously rich strike of sylvanite ore was made in the Bluefish mine on Squaw Creek, Bald Mountain, that will run several hundred dollars per ton.

HALF MILLION LOSS BY FIRE

Big Ashland Lumber Mills Destroyed By Flames.

TWO OF THE MEN LOSE THEIR LIVES.

James Nowlander and an Unknown Employee Caught in One of the Burning Buildings—The Fire Started in the Durfee Plant and Destroyed the Shores and the Bigelow Mills—Bay Filled With Blazing Rafts.

Ashland, May 9.—[Special]—A half million dollar fire rages along the docks. It originated in the Durfee Lumber Company mill and destroyed the Durfee, the Shores and the Bigelow plants and thousands of feet of dockage.

At three o'clock the flames were less fierce but the bay was full of blazing lumber rafts that had broken away from their moorings. All the tugs in the bay were employed in driving them toward shore.

The employees of all the other mills joined in fighting fire.

An unknown man was caught in the Durfee mill and burned to death.

James Nowlander jumped from a window of the Durfee mill into the bay and was drowned.

The loss on mill property is $228,000 and on lumber $275,000.

Unknown Man Killed.

Madison, May 9.—An unknown man was killed by the cars at Oregon, a short distance south of the depot.
No one saw the accident, but developments show that he drove onto the railway track at the depot, turning south and driving on the track. A short distance from the depot his horse fell between the sleepers of the railway bridge. It is evident that while he was trying to extricate the animal, the engine struck him, killing him almost instantly.

Not one at Oregon knows the man, and nothing was found on his person by which he can be identified. He was an old gentleman of about seventy, about five feet seven inches tall, weight probably about one hundred and forty, smooth shaven, and rather well dressed. His feet were badly crippled, and he wore nothing on them but a pair of arctic overshoes.
He drove a bay pony with road cart, in which was found a case of eggs, the case marked Rock Grove, Ill. He was seen driving into town from the direction of Janesville a short time before the accident.

A lady's bonnet and two shawls were also found in the buggy, but as yet no woman has been found. The operator at the station saw the man as he drove down the track, and hailed him, but could get no reply.

Milwaukee Strikers Are Quiet.

Milwaukee, May 9.—The situation regarding the strike rather improved a bit early in the day, but later dropped back into the old rut of incipient riots where the rioters scattered before the patrol wagons could reach the scene.

ALTGELD AND SILVER.

Democrats Meet at Geneva and Choose Delegates to the State Convention.

Aurora, Ill., May 9.—Kane county democrats held their convention at Geneva Friday to choose delegates to the state convention at Peoria. Judge Samuel Alschuler of Aurora was chairman and Editor Smith of Aurora and F. W. Belden of Kaneville secretaries.
A bitter fight was made on the Hon.
Dennis Hogan of Geneva, who has been state central committeeman from the 18th district for a number of years and a great power in the democracy of the county. The friends of Dr. J. W. Mc-Donald of Aurora, who wishes to succeed Hogan, made a great struggle and succeeded in heading off instructions for Hogan. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the administration of Gov.
Altgeld and instructing the delegates to vote for his renomination, also for the restoration of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

TWO OLD SETTLERS CALLED BY DEATH

EVANSVILLE LOSES TWO EARLY RESIDENTS.

William Drummond and Mrs. Lucinda Libby Enter Into the Final Rest—Open Air Baptism at Clear Lake Today—Clinton Fire Well to Be Dug.

Evansville, May 9.—William Drummond died Friday morning, May 8, at his home on Park street aged seventy-four years. Mr. Drummond was born in Auchtermuchty, Scotland, and came to New York at the age of nineteen. In 1845 he came to Wisconsin and entered into the bakery business in Janesville, later moving to Milwaukee. From there he went to New York to reside but about twenty-eight years ago he came back here and settled on his farm in Porter, some five miles from this city. About ten years ago he became a resident of Evansville. In 1845 he was married. Five children, two of whom are dead were born; William, whose widow is residing in Minn. and Marion, who married Elijah Williams, who is now living in Janesville. The three living children are David, who lives near the Leyden, James, who resides between Janesville and Beloit, and Mrs. Mary Davis of Cooksville. His wife, Mrs. Marion Drummond, died in 1888 and in July 1893 he was again married to Miss Fannie Riley, of Stoughton who survives him. The funeral services will take place Sunday.

Mrs. Lucinda Berry Libby.
Evansville, May 9.—Mrs. Lucinda Berry Libby died at her residence on South Madison street, Friday morning, May 8, aged 87 years. Mrs. Libby was born in Saco, Maine, on October 22, 1809 and lived there the greater part of her youth. She married Nathaniel Libby in 1828, but Mr. Libby died in 1881 aged 77 years. She came to Wisconsin in 1815. Eleven children were born to them five of whom are now living, William, Nathaniel and Mrs. Byron Campbell of this city; Harrison, of Lena, Ill.; and C. A. Libby, of Chicago, editor of the Enterprise and Tribune of this city. The funeral will take place from the Free Will Baptist church, of which she was a charter member, Sunday afternoon, Rev. The teachers and students deserve much praise. Superintendent Throne attended the entertainment. Will Gasper has secured a position in a hotel at White-water, and left here for that place last week. Mrs. Rose Coakley and son Guy have gone to Janesville to work in a hotel. Mrs. Coakley as cook and Guy as stable boy. We are sorry to lose so many of our friends and neighbors. ## THE MILK WAR IS STILL RAGING

Local Dealers Report the Doubling of Their Sales in Consequence.

Milk was never as plentiful and cheap as it is today in the Bower City and the citizens of Janesville are using on an average of 3,000 quarts a day. The "milk war" is still on, and is liable to continue for some time. This is all because of the appearance of that "little wagon from Mount Zion" and the local men are not pleased. A Janesville dealer who has been in the business for the past ten years says that while his regular customers took two hundred quarts a day a short time ago they now buy four hundred and that milk is taking the place of water on nearly all the tables in this city.

BEGIN WORK IN SAND PIT.

Quirk will manage the loading of the cars.

BAPTIST WORKERS ORGANIZED

President—R. J. Eddy, of Beloit.

Vice President—U. G. Waite, of Afton.

Secretary and Treasurer—J. T. Fitchett, of Janesville.

The business session began at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. J. Y. Montague of Brodhead was elected chairman and Miss Lena M. Newman, of Juda, secretary. Remarks were made by Wm. Blanchard, of Emmettburg, Iowa, who was one of the founders of the Janesville Baptist association forty years ago. Rev. A. C. Kemp-ton, of Eau Claire, state president and R. B. Hosking, of Milwaukee, a state secretary of the Wisconsin Baptist Young People's Union. A nominating committee, consisting of Miss Lena Newman, Miss Letha Kemmer and H. J. Napper, was appointed to report at the evening session, after which the meeting adjourned with singing and benediction until 7:30 o'clock.

The Evening Session.

Rev. O. P. Bestor opened the evening session with a praise service and the program followed. The subject came under two heads. The first one was "Methods of Work and Field of Activity," and under it the following subjects were discussed: "Associational," by Rev. M. G. Hodge; "Sunday School" by Rev. W. B. The second division was "Source of Supply and Direction" and included "As to Instruction" by Rev. O. P. Bestor, of Evansville; "As to Inspiration" by Rev. Joseph Mountain, of Albany and "As to Direction" by Rev. A. W. Runyan, of Beloit. Prof. Anderson sang a solo, "His Cross Is Not Greater Than His Grace" between the two divisions.

R. B. Hosking told of the national convention of Baptist Young People's Unions to be held in Milwaukee July 16, and outlined the work to be done. Several pleasure excursions were also under consideration including trips to the Dells, Devil's Lake, Oshkosh, Chicago and Mackinaw by boat, and the Epworth League picnic at Luddington, Mich.

Officers were then chosen on the report of the nominating committee; Rev. Mr. Montague was made transportation leader to make arrangements for the Janesville association at Milwaukee; thanks were extended to the people of Janesville; the benediction was pronounced, and adjournment followed.

BIDWELL'S VERY NARROW ESCAPE

Falling Car Door Came Near Throwing Him Under The Train.

George Bidwell, who was injured in the St. Paul freight yards yesterday, was today congratulating himself that he is alive. The accident happened near the Gold street crossing. After putting a link in the bumper, Bidwell reached for the door at the end of the car, so as to draw himself up. The door gave way, and falling upon him, knocked him to one side of the track. The train was backing up at the time, and had Bidwell fallen upon the track it would have killed him. As it was, he was painfully bruised by being struck with the oil houses on the car axles. He is now under the care of Dr. Whiting, the company's surgeon.

A number of mothers with their babies spent the afternoon at the church, while light refreshments were served. Mothers who came without their babies were fined ten cents and the "junior promenade" occurred at 4 o'clock.

The West Virginia editor's idea of nominating a dead man for president, or the democratic ticket, wasn't such a bad one. His chance for election would be better than that of any living democrat, and he would be sure to make no campaign "breaks."

FAR EASTERN SIBERIA.

Where Men Eat and Drink While Waiting for Dinner.

The patient, bovine-natured peasants of Corea perform the office of packhorse in this region and three Koreans quickly presented themselves to me, on my landing from the steamer in a sampan, and carried up my traps to the Zolotoe Rog or Golden Horn hotel, says a writer in the Fortnightly Review. This log house certainly possesses the attraction of strong "local color"; nothing could be more Vladivostokian. Its bar and billiard room, which are in one, are crowded with handsome, martial, uniformed figures every evening.

Some are strutting round the billiard table and others, fork in hand, picking up an electric zakuska from the condiments—caviare, pickles, salt fish, etc.—exposed in front of a glittering row of miscellaneous alcoholic bottles. Some are tossing down liqueur glasses of colorless vodka—most abominable of drinks!—others seated, two or three together, socially discussing garrison scandal, German bottled beer and cigarettes. The Chinese billiard-marker meanwhile lolls with all the sans-gene of a Montana mining town marker and watches the "young barbarians at play" with placid Mongolian superiority.

The zakuska (a-term formed on kuskok, "a bit, a snack") gives an appetite, and also has to allay it, for the easy-going, good-tempered Russians do not insist on military punctuality from the Asiatic hotel servants and these are not likely to volunteer to give it. Every one waits in Vladivostok. The izvozchiks wait on the box of their calecha for a fare; the Korean porter, with his carrying frame on his back, sits on the plank "sidewalk" and waits for a job; the European or Siberian guests sit at tables, smoking cigarettes to beguile the hours, and wait for the waiter to bring them their obied or ujia (lunch or dinner), ten times already ordered and promised "immediately"; the long-tressed, cheerful-looking young Chinese waiters, ipso facto, wait and pass jokes in a loud voice between themselves in the guttural dialect of Shantung (China) until the Japanese cook has got ready the portia—"portion"—ordered by a guest an hour or two ago. It must surely be an error to render seichass by "immediately"; literally it means "this hour" and the waiters in Vladivostok can mean nothing less by it.

FIRE AND AIR.

Their Intimate Relation Was Early Recognized—Lord Bacon's Belief.

The intimate relation between fire and air was early recognized, seeing that experience soon taught that air was necessary for fire, says the Scottish Review. The experiment of burning a candle in a closed vessel, now so familiar to every schoolboy, is a very old one, and the influence of a blast of air on a furnace had been probably noticed from a very remote period. By some it was affirmed to be the food of fire, while by others the same belief was embodied in the phrase, "Air nourishes fire."

Again, it was long ago observed that niter, a substance well known to the chemical philosophers of the past, could produce intense ignition. It was hence inferred that, since niter possessed this property, it necessarily followed that the two substances resembled each other in composition. According to Robert Boyle the air contained "volatile niter," while Lord Bacon held that air contained a "volatile, crude and windy spirit," and thunder and lightning were supposed to be due to the presence of minute particles of this niter diffused through the air.

The important bearing of such observations is due to the fact that oxygen gas, which is one of the chief constituents of air and the one to which it owes its power of supporting combustion, also forms the largest elementary constituent of niter, and is likewise the source of the power possessed by that body of supporting combustion.

The action of heat on metals in causing them to lose their metallic luster had also not escaped notice and Cardan, a philosopher who lived during the sixteenth century, in noticing the increase in weight that lead undergoes when heated in air, attributed it to the gas in the air which feeds flame and which rekindles a body presenting an ignited point.

Blow at Ward Politicians.

Judge James F. Harvey, of the Montgomery circuit court, Crawfordsville, Ind., is about to establish a new court rule which will practically do away with the "professional juryman," who had been such an annoying curse to all courts in Indiana from time immemorial. Judge Harvey proposes to guard against this class by ordering the jury commissioners to draw the regular panel of twelve and then either four or six additional talesmen who can be called in to take the places of those of the regular panel excused by the court. The sheriffs declare that the professional juryman become more numerous every year, and are most annoying, rendering a sheriff's position especially in election years, most embarrassing.

If women only heeded first symptoms—nervousness, backache, headache, lassitude, loss of appetite and sleep; palpitation, melancholy, "blues," etc., and at once removed the cause with Lydia E. The Vegetable Compound at once removes all irregularities of the monthly period; inflammation, ulceration and displacement of the womb, and all female troubles. All druggists have it. Write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., if you wish for advice, which she will give you free.

TEACHERS ARE HERE TEN SCORE STRONG

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING OF COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

Prof. F. P. Starr, Presided, and the Meeting Was One of Profit For All Who Attended—The Papers Read and Discussed—Attendance is Unusually Good For Spring Session

Two hundred Rock county school teachers fanned themselves at the new high school this morning. They had gathered to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Rock County Teachers' association, and the session was a warm one. The attendance was very large, the promoters said, as usually the spring session is less successful than the fall meeting. The heat did not deter many from attending, however, and the managers were much pleased. President F. P. Starr of Afton, presided, and teachers from all over Rock county took part. The meeting was called to order at 9:45 o'clock this morning. The first number on the program was a piano duet by Miss Sophie and Elizabeth Weisend and a violin solo by Miss Mamie Hillbrandt followed. Miss Helen Merrifield then read a paper on "The Relations of the Teacher to the Community," and the discussion that followed was led by Charles Hemmingsway.

"Open Their Eyes That They May See," was the subject assigned to Miss Nina Vandewalker and singing by the audience, under the leadership of Prof. Buell followed.

Miss Katherine Viggin then spoke of "Rhetoricals in the District Schools" and the discussion of the ideas advanced was led by Miss Myrta Sandler.

Prof. L. E. Gettle, of Madison, was the principal speaker this afternoon, his address being preceded by a paper on "Nature Lessons," by Mattie Crockett and Elizabeth Abbott, the discussion being opened by Carolyn Kimball.

The Spirit of the Teacher was spoken of by A. G. Hough while the response came from Prof. H. C. Buell. The "Question Box" was the closing number.

EDGERTON'S MARSHAL CHOSEN

Nine Hundred Ballots Taken By the Council Before There Was a Choice.

George Ogden is now the marshal of the city of Edgerton. At the first meeting of the council, four hundred ballots were taken without a choice, the vote standing, L. Harvey, 3, Ben Springer 2 and George Ogden 1. Harvey and Ogden are republicans, while Springer, the present marshal, was a democrat. Five hundred ballots were taken at the last meeting. Then two of the others went to Ogden, and made the vote a tie. Mayor Heddies voted for Ogden, and he was declared elected. No charge against Springer, but he is a democrat while the council is republican.

THE Y. M. C. A. IS NOT ON PAYING BASIS

THE ASSOCIATION IS NOT SELF SUPPORTING.

There Are But 400 Members, While 600 Would No More Than Pay the Expenses—Thorough Canvass of the City to Be Made Next Week.

The Y. M. C. A. is not self supporting. There are four hundred members but that is not enough.

Consequently a canvass of the city will be made next week, the purpose being to raise the membership.

At the present time the membership rolls contain nearly four hundred names, but this number lacks a good deal of putting the institution on a self supporting basis. The object of next week's work will be to try and get an additional two hundred members. With this number the association will support itself—but no more.

Since the organization of the association in Janesville, all things have been run on an economical plan. The managers have made a success of whatever they have undertaken, and nothing has been done in a hurried way.

"I think we will have but very little trouble in securing two hundred more members," remarked a member of the committee, "for we not only intend to cover the business section of the city, but we will go through the residence portion as well."

MINING WITH FIRE.

Greer Method Employed in the Yukon Country in Alaska.

From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer: J. O. Hestwood, who is well known in this city, returned from Alaska on the last trip of the Alaska Commercial company's steamer to San Francisco. Mr. Hestwood has some mining claims on the upper Yukon, near Forty-Mile City. He left that point in the early part of September, and it took him over a month to get home. He came 2,000 miles down the Yukon to St. Michaels, on the coast, then down to Unalak, and from there across to San Francisco.

"About 700 people went into the upper Yukon country last season," said Mr. Hestwood, "by way of Juneau, making their way over the mountains at Chilkat pass, then on the ice over the great lakes for 300 miles; from there they had to go 400 miles further by boat, when they reached Forty-Mile City. There has been a great deal of activity in the mines at Forty-Mile. It was demonstrated last winter that these mines can be worked as profitably in the winter as in summer; in fact, at much less expense. This is done by the use of fire. A hole is sunk by fire down to the pay streak, the earth being thawed out by the heat. The dirt is then hoisted by windlass and left on top of the ground and is washed out in the spring. I opened up quite a rich claim this season on Glacier creek, and I have men employed this winter burning. I expect to take in prospecting machinery next spring, which will enable me to locate the pay streak in the gulch in a comparatively short time. By using this machinery a hole twenty-five feet deep can be sunk in a day, when eighteen inches a day by burning is a pretty good day's work."

Speaking of the Alaska boundary dispute Mr. Hestwood said: "In my opinion, if the United States fail to hold their rightful title to the territory which is in dispute they might as well give up all claim to Alaska. If this country should have no coast line up there except above the 141st meridian, entrance to the upper Yukon would be impossible by way of an American port, except during the summer months, because the mouth of the Yukon, which is about sixty miles wide, is filled with ice from Behring sea until late in June. You can easily see what this would mean—England would absolutely control the trade of that country. It is universally claimed by experienced miners who have been in Alaska that it is one of the greatest goldbearing countries in the world. There are 5,000 miles of waterway in which gold can be found."

Showed How They Could Fight.

Oct. 11, 1776, Arnold's fleet stood battle against the Britons on Lake Champlain. The British gained the day, but they lost much of their conceit about ruling the wave. It was not going to be easy work this side the ocean. The British had the preponderance in ships and men. The guns were about equal. In England's squadron there were three ships of war, built in England and transported piecemeal from the St. Lawrence to Lake Champlain. One of them alone, the Inflexible, of 300 tons burden and mounting 18 guns, should have been able to destroy Arnold's entire flotilla. England's seamen also were from the royal navy. Arnold's ships were not intended for serious fighting, but had been put afloat as a patrol. Their crews were motley detachments and the officers had been detailed from the army.

Arnold commanded the flagship Congress. Toward the close of the fight he pointed every cannon with his own hands. His ship was hulled 12 times, seven shots striking between wind and water. In the Washington every officer was killed excepting General Waterbury, who fought on the quarter deck with conspicuous bravery. The Trumbull also lost every officer excepting her commander, Captain Lee. The Grant was riddled with shot and sank. Under cover of night Arnold retreated down the lake. The British ships pursued and after a sharp fight in Panton bay the fleet dispersed and Arnold led his men overland to Crown Point. Before abandoning his ship, Arnold battled against seven British vessels four hours. Setting fire to her, he stood by and kept the flags flying until the flames destroyed them.

Each to His Own Trade.

President Hayes had for one of his Ohio neighbors a testy old fellow who kept a small truck farm. During Mr. Hayes's four years in the White House, on one of his visits some he passed this old man's farm, and found him planting potatoes. The president, being somewhat of a farmer himself, noticed some eccentricity in his neighbor's style of planting, and, after a little chat, called attention to it. The old man defended his method, and finally Mr. Hayes said, as he started along: "Well, I don't think you will get the best kind of a crop if you plant in that manner."

The farmer rested on his elbows on the fence. "They ain't neither one of us above havin' fault found with us," he said; "but if you just go to president in the United States your way, an' I go on plazin' potatoes my way, I guess we won't be no wuss off in the end."

BOBBY'S PRAYER CUT SHORT.

Punished for Not Including the Wants of His Sister.

From the Washington Star: Bobby is a small man of five years, living on Mount Pleasant way. Though lisping in speech and four summers the junior of his sister Frances, he yet fully feels the importance of having been born into the broad estate of man, looking pitifully indeed upon his sister, whom fate unkindly sent into the narrow and trammelled sphere of woman, and condescendingly referring to her in general conversation as "a little girl."

The other evening Frances, her nightly "now I lay me" properly said, was already tucked up in her little brass bed, when Bobby, still kneeling by his own couch, deemed it wise, in view of the approach of Christmas, to supplement the regular prayer with a petition for a few items which he considers the necessities of life, so he began afresh: "And, oh God, I fink it's doin' to be told, send me a sled, please—and 'spress tart—and—and a wockin' horse—" (and then, as his views on the subject of transportation grew and enlarged), "and a bicittle—and—"

At this point Frances became interested and put in: "Pray for me, too. Pray for me, I need a lot of things."

"And a pony," continued Bobby, still petitioning in his own behalf.

"Pray for me. Pray for me," Frances piped in accompaniment.

"Wif a ha'nness and waddox," quoth the small suppliant.

"Pray for me. Pray for me," still chorused Frances.

"And, oh God," concluded Bobby, after a short pause, in which he evidently entertained for a moment, but finally dismissed as unworthy the consideration of a man, the idea of praying for dolls and such foolish feminine fancies, "and, oh God, fardive Frances' sins. Amen."

That prayer meeting broke up that very instant, and in a row, for though Frances may be only "a little girl," she is at the same time an incipient new woman, and the new woman, as everybody knows, will not endure patronage from anything bearing the semblance of a man.

And thus it came that there were shrieks of pain from the petitioner, mingled with loud and energetic views on the woman question from the petitioner, which sounds of warfare died away in silence only after mamma, ex-cusing herself from her card party, had read the combatants to sleep.

TALENTS OF THE JEW.

Famous in Finance, Philosophy, Medicine and Music.

From the Jacksonville Metropolis: Someone has been at the pains recently to make an analysis of the characteristics of more than 30,000 prominent men of modern times with special reference to the Jewish race. The results are curious and interesting. They bear testimony also to the remarkable versatility and adaptability of the Jewish people and their tenacity of purpose, even under the most adverse conditions. Although Moses, the greatest of lawgivers, and Joshua, one of the most brilliant and successful, were of the Jewish race, in modern times the Jews are less distinguished than men of other creeds generally as statesmen and soldiers. They have no distinction whatever as agriculturists, engravers, sailors and explorers. Their great service to the world has been accomplished in the capacity of actors, doctors, financiers, metaphysicians, musicians, poets and philosophers. In all these lines of human thought and endeavor they have contributed many illustrious, immortal names. Astronomical science has no brighter name upon its roll than Herschel, the Jew, and mathematics boasts no greater service than that which it received at the hands of Jacobi Cremona. In biology also the once despised Hebrew has made his mark. Bernstein, Remak, Rosenthal and Valentine have done large service as physiologists, Cohnheim, Hirsch, Liebreich, Lombroso and Troube as pathologists will, perhaps, be recognized, while F. Cohn is, perhaps, the third greatest botanist in Germany today. But it is in the realm of music that the genius of the Jew has had its largest development and accomplished the most brilliant and original results. One has only to think of the wonderful achievements of such masters of the art as Mendelssohn, Meyerbeer and Rubinstein, to say nothing of Moscheles and Haley, to realize how poor the world would be had not these men of the Jewish race lived and wrought as they did. Surely the mantle of David, the poet king of Israel and the great master of sacred song, has fallen on not one, but many, of his descendants in these later days.

Imitate the Boys.

The young women students at Lawrence university, Appleton, Wis., have decided to wear a uniform dress. They were stirred to the decision, it is said, by the smart appearance of the young men in the military school connected with the university, who recently donned new uniforms of gray and black. The girls first proposed to wear a uniform of the same color as that worn by the boys, but finally decided on navy blue. They are to wear blue blouses laced up in front with black and skirts of blue trimmed with black. In the gymnasium blue bloomers will be substituted for the skirts.

Customer—What do you mean by telling me that stuff you called hair restorer and telling me it would restore my head to its original condition?
Chemist—Didn't you like it?
Customer—No, I didn't. If I had kept on much longer I should have been entirely bald. Original condition, indeed!
Chemist—Most people are born bald, sir. That is the original condition.—Tit-Bits.

Power of Association.
Mrs. DeTemper (looking up from paper)—Well, I declare! Another woman, single-handed, has captured a burglar. I should think she would have been killed by the brute; but the paper says the moment she grabbed a poker and made a dash for him his knees trembled and his teeth shook, and he sank to the floor in fright.

SHE WAS SLIGHTLY MIXED.

Dr. Holmes' Charming Visitor Made an Amusing Blunder.

"I remember once in my experience," remarked a literary young woman, to a Washington Star man, "of taking several ladies to call on the late Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes when I was in school in Boston. I had known the Holmeses since childhood and went there pretty much as I pleased, and often took friends of mine with me to see the good doctor. On this occasion one of the ladies was a young married woman, who had never read any of Dr. Holmes' books and she insisted that I coach her a bit, so that she would not make any mistakes. I told her several titles, and dwelt especially upon the 'Autocrat of the Breakfast Table,' because that was my favorite. She was an intelligent person and was a rapid learner, so that when we started out I felt perfectly sure that she would do me credit. Well, everything went swimmingly along, and she wisely kept silent on the book question, except to second the compliments of those of us who were conversant with the doctor's books—that is, swimmingly until just as we were leaving. Then she seemed to think she ought to say something, and she did. I was listening, as it happened, for I had grown a little careless and had thought she wasn't going to try herself.
"Oh, doctor," she said, in a little burst of enthusiasm, 'I want to tell you how much I have enjoyed your books and particularly the "Autograph of the Breakfast Table."
"Well, I thought I should drop right through the floor, and I gasped and waited to see what the doctor would do, but my alarm was needless; he simply smiled into her face and in his kindest manner thanked her and said that many people thought the 'Autograph' was the best thing he had ever done. Think of that," continued the young woman, "he even said 'autograph,' as she had said it and she never knew the difference until we got outside, and then if she didn't know the difference I don't think I ever showed anybody there was any difference in anything."

A Word for the Elevator Boy.

One of the elevator men in the city hall, whose contact with all sorts and conditions of men has developed in him a fondness for studying character, has often wondered just what word to apply to a malady which seems to afflict some of his passengers. "Many people get into the elevator," he remarked the other day, "and seem to imagine I should know just where they want to get off. They never open their lips until I carry them beyond their destination, when they seem to think I am at fault for not being a mind reader. I spoke to Police Surgeon Andrews about it one day, and told him I thought there ought to be some word coined to describe these people. He advised me to call them aphoniatics, and explained to me that aphonia was really a temporary loss of speech. So now I'm always on the watch for aphoniatics."—Philadelphia Record.

The Dog Wasn't Afraid.

A bit of blonde sweetness came into a restaurant which is frequented by literary people last evening, with her parents. A large and somewhat savage bull pup stood right in her way as she attempted to pass. The baby, however, was well posed and, walking straight up to the ugly dog, said, as she patted him on the head: "Why, doggie isn't afraid of me a bit; kiss me, doggie," which he did, and the little one clapped her hands with glee and cried: "Oh, mamma, he isn't afraid; he kissed me." The child went to another table to say good evening to a friend and as she shook hands and said, "I'm quite well now," she added, "Did you see that dog kiss me? He is not a bit afraid of me but he is of the cat!" She joined her parents and while eating her soup she talked to herself and wondered why that big dog kissed her and was afraid of a little cat. —New York Herald.

A Year's Work.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the United Hebrew Charities was held in Temple Emanu-El in New York city the other night. The managers reported an expenditure of $138,895.11 during the year among 39,252 applicants. Of this number 544 were transported to foreign countries and 1,356 were sent to various sections of the United States and Canada. There were 3,545 cases of sickness attended by physicians, and 17,053 articles of clothing and 1,073 tons of coal were given to the poor. The total receipts amounted to $144,539.90.

Full Preparation.

"I thought," said the solemn parson, "that you intended for your little son to enter the ministry."
"I do," said the father.
"And yet you allow him to have such war-like toys as a gun and sword."
"Yes; I think he ought to get familiar with the use of them. He might be sent as a missionary, you know."—Indianapolis Journal.

Said by Miss Willard.

It is not so much what comes to you as what you come to, that determines whether you are a winner in the great race of life. Never forget that the only indestructible material in destiny's fierce crucible is character, say this, not to another—say it to yourself; utter it early, and repeat it often. Fail me not, thou—Frances E. Willard.

"Is It Right?"

So live with men as considering always that God sees thee; so pray to God as if every man heard thee. Do nothing which thou wouldst not have God see done. Desire nothing which may either wrong thy profession to ask or God's honor to grant.—Bishop Henshaw.

Pay of Russian Ambassadors.

Russian ambassadors are paid about twice as much as ours. The ambassadors to Berlin, Vienna, Constantinople, London and Paris receive 50,000 rubles, or $37,500; the ambassador to Rome, 40,000 rubles, those at Washington, Tokio, Madrid and Pekin 30,000, at Teheran 25,000, at Athens, Brussels, The Hague, Copenhagen, Mexico, Munich and Stockholm 20,000. The ministers at Bucharest, Belgrade, Rio de Janeiro, Lisbon and Stuttgart get 18,000 rubles, the envoy to the vatican 12,000, those to Dresden and Cettinje 10,000, and to Welmar and Darmstadt 8,000.

Elected by a Sow.

The mayors of Leicester, in the early days of England, were elected by a sow. The ambitious candidates seated themselves in a semi-circle each with a hatful of beans in his lap. The man from whose hat the sow ate first was proclaimed the mayor.

The Same Thing.

The horny-handed man calls it "pay," the skilled mechanic "wages," the city clerk "salary," the banker "income," a land owner "rent roll," a lawyer "fees," a burglar "swag," but it all comes to the same at the end of the week.—Florida Times-Union.

Foreign Substance.

Boarder (suspiciously)—"There is no foreign substance in this coffee, is there?"

Landlady—"Um—er—well, I'm afraid there is, sir. The spoon is a souvenir from India, I believe."—Eureka Times.

Almost every man in America has some digestive trouble. When men meet, the greeting usually is "Well, how's your liver?" That develops health talk. The man who has no stomach or bowel trouble is almost a curiosity. Trouble is men take no care of themselves. They eat as if they had copper stomachs and bowels of brass. By and by, overworked nature rebels. Then come headaches, nervousness, bad blood, liver and kidney troubles.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets furnish help for constipation and rapid liver, sick and bilious heads, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Accept no substitute.

HOLMES ENTOMBED IN CEMENT.

Murderer Wished to Be Secure from the Dissecting Table.

Philadelphia, May 9.—The body of H. H. Holmes was on Friday taken from the vault in Holy Cross cemetery, where it had been under guard since the execution on Thursday, and was lowered into a grave ten feet deep. The only persons present were Attorney Samuel Rotan, Father McPake, of the Church of the Annunciation, and an undertaker, besides the grave diggers. The box which contains the body, imbedded in cement, that has already hardened, weighs over a ton, and was too wide to be lowered into an ordinary grave. Hence a separate space was selected for the interment. The dead murderer was accorded a Christian burial, but the services were brief. At the conclusion a layer of cement two feet thick was piled upon the coffin and his tomb will be a solid wall of rock. These precautions were the result of Holmes' last wishes. He feared the dissecting table more than he did the grave. Lawyer Rotan has not yet examined the papers left by Holmes but he feels certain that no will is among them. He will not look at the papers until after a short vacation, which he will begin to-morrow.

New York, May 9.—Attorney George R. Chamberlain of Chicago, who claims to have first exposed the late H. H. Holmes and driven him from that city, is at the Astor house. He says Holmes' dying confession will be received by Chief Badenoch, of the Chicago police, next week. In this he is supposed to dispose of $55,000 which he made in his swindling operations. Mr. Chamberlain talked with Holmes, and the latter asserted that the "confessions" he sold for large sums to several newspapers were "faked" and were simply to make money to conduct his defense.

Good Picture of James G. Blaine.

Washington, May 9.—During a recent exhibition of pictures at the Arlington Hotel Mr. Manley came across a fine bust portrait of James G. Blaine, which was painted by Healy twenty years ago. It is a splendid picture, and under instructions from Mr. Manley it has been sent to Augusta for the inspection of Mrs. Blaine, with a view to its ultimate purchase and presentation to the Blaine family. Mr. Blaine gave a sitting to Healy for his portrait, and those who had the opportunity of getting a glimpse of it before it was sent away from Washington say it is one of the best portraits ever made of the famous premier of two republican administrations.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 9.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union has adopted a resolution and appeal for moral character as a qualification for admission in the University of Cincinnati and the colleges of this county and state. Every college faculty will be asked to require a certificate of moral character from matriculants and to punish with expulsion any student who frequents saloons or improper resorts.

Goodland, Kan., May 9.—M. B. Tomblin, president of the defunct Sherman county bank, and Presley I. Lancaster, vice-president of the same concern, have been arrested here on complaint of County Commissioner George Austin. They are charged with receiving deposits after the bank was in a failing condition. At their preliminary trial they were bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,200 each.

Springfield, Ill., May 9.—J. F. Brocker, of Havana, a conductor on the Big Four railroad, was found lying dead on the Wabash railroad in Litchfield, southwest of this city. #### Dynamiter Woods Convicted.

Muscataine, Iowa, May 9.—Mart S. Woods, one of the conspirators in the dynamite outrages in this place in May, 1893, when the homes of E. M. Kessinger, John Mahin and N. Rosenberger were blown up, was convicted at the termination of an eight days' trial. This was his second trial.

Packing House to Shut Down.

Kansas City, Mo., May 9.—It is stated here that on Monday next Swift & Co. will shut down their big packing plant at this point for an indefinite period. Their plant gives employment to 1,300 men, and, in capacity, ranks as second among the packing establishments of Kansas City. It is intimated that the company's Kansas City office force will be retained, being given employment at Swift & Co.'s other establishments in Omaha, St. Louis and Chicago, to which points the present Kansas City business will be diverted. It is intimated reported shut down is the result of an agreement among the several packing companies doing business here, and that it has been decided that the closing down of one big plant will have an effect of quieting

A Rich Man.

It is related that Baron De Rothschild of Paris once called Guzman Blanco the richest man in the world. When the Venezuelan dictator protested against that compliment Rothschild retorted: "You are surely the richest man in the world, for who else has estates comprising 600,000 square miles of territory? Who else has an income of $37,000,000? Who else has 2,500,000 slaves?" Guzman was not slow in seeing the point.
